

KFHG Programme 2017 - 2018

Tuesday 26th September 2017

“Once a Gunner, always a Gunner”, talk by Michael Couper.

Tuesday 31st October 2017

Meeting. Bring a piece of family memorabilia to share with the group, plus a short demonstration.

Tuesday 28th November 2017

“Kelsall's First World War heroine (Marguerite Moseley-Williams) and her remarkable later life”, talk by Richard Mortimore, plus a short demonstration on using old newspapers to research topics.

December 2017 No Meeting

Tuesday 30th January 2018

“Lost at Sea” talk by genealogist Carolyn Barnwell (how to get started on your family tree).

Tuesday 27th February 2018

“Knocking down those Brick walls”, advice from Family History Group members. Bring examples of your difficult queries for us to assist you.

Tuesday 27th March, 2018

“Before Parish Registers”, a talk by David Guyton, chairperson of the Chester Family History Group.

Tuesday 24th April 2018

“Who was Lord Binning?” talk by Anne O’Donnell about the person who inspired the name of a local hostelry in Kelsall, plus a short demonstration on using trade directories online.

Tuesday 29th May 2018

“Knocking down those Brick walls”, advice from Family History Group members. Bring examples of your difficult queries for us to assist you.

Tuesday 26th June 2018

“Absent Friends”, talk by Linda Clarke on a project for volunteers to list local soldiers who fought in the First World War.

Tuesday 30th July 2018

TBC “The Ridge”, talk by Peter Wynn about Cheshire’s Sandstone Ridge.

August 2018 No Meeting

NB. Programme of Lectures may be subject to change. Please see our “Facebook” page and KADRAS Diary for the latest details.