

1st Kelsall Guides Millennium Time Capsule

Buried in St Philip's Churchyard on 20th February 2000

Contents

- The Guide Handbook
- A Guide Sash with a selection of badges
- Pamphlet – 'Take a Fresh Look at Guiding'
- The Guide and the Brownie Promise Cards
- Letters written by the guides, sorted by patrols: Sunflowers, Paws, Snowdrops, and Swallows
- Chester Chronicle newspaper photo of the launch of the Millennium Time Capsule Project.
Back row: Carol Stephenson (Guide Leader), Rosie Booth (Brownie Leader), Ro Cowell (Assistant Brownie Leader), Sally Raeburn (Assistant Guider), Helen Struthers and Lucy Wagstaff (guides)
Front row: John Gray (Kelsall Millennium Committee Chairman), Rebecca Haydock and Sarah Mills (brownies), Pete Goulden (Cub Scout Leader) and Alan Sensicle (KMC member)
- Copy of Registration Form dated 5th July 1939
- Roll of Honour of Guiders
- Copy of Guiding magazine dated February 1999
- Copy of Brownie magazine dated February 2000
- Four photos taken at the Guides Diamond Anniversary celebration showing the Steps' 'Tragedy' song and dance routine, and the whole unit singing
- A guide woggle
- List of churches, schools and businesses operating in Kelsall
- Leaflets from some of the businesses concerned
- Theatre programme of 'The Phoenix and the Carpet' which the guides went to see in January 2000 at the Gateway Theatre, Chester
- Copy of The Times newspaper dated February 5 2000
- Popular teenage magazine 'Bliss'
- 'What's On in Chester' guide
- Kelsall Parish Paths map
- Village map prepared by the guides
- CD of the most popular single 'Tragedy' by STEPS
- Royal Mail Millennium Stamps
- Packet of Sunflower seeds
- A bottle of nail varnish
- Strawberry flavour Lypstyl
- A selection of earrings
- Two hairgrips
- A tube of Smarties
- A 'Furbie' toy