

“Views of the Sandstone Trail”

The Habitats and Hillforts Photography Competition

We are looking for striking, original and beautiful landscape photographs taken anywhere along Cheshire's Sandstone Trail.

Images are to be uploaded onto the website www.harthill.org/photography (view website for all entry details)

The deadline for this contest is 31st August 2012

First Prize is £200's worth of Jessops vouchers, plus the top 3 photographers in each category will have their photographs published in a book to celebrate the contest and the project.

The winner will be announced by international photographer and publisher, Guy Woodland, at an evening to celebrate the entrants. Guy will also give a talk and presentation about his passion for landscape photography, with a question and answer session.
